

We all stand here
In this big ring
And as we stand
We loudly sing,
Clap your hands now,
One, two, three!
The one I touch must
Try to catch me!

HOW TO PLAY:

Children stand in a circle, with hands joined. One child is chosen to be the 'Runner', who leaves the ring and walks around the outside of the circle. At the words: "The one I touch", the runner taps the shoulder of a child who becomes the chosen Chaser, who must then leave the circle to try and catch the Runner.

If the Runner isn't caught before he reaches his place in the ring, the children cheer and clap hands, and the game starts again. The Chaser from the last game becomes the Runner for the next round.
